HOW IT MIGHT HAPPEN. VIII.

There was room inside the car - even on the platform - but these two men wanted to ride on the steps. It was risky for them to ride on the steps, anyway.

But some one wanted to get off and in the narrow space, without a chance to reach for the hand rails, this some one tripped forward and was hurt. It might happen exactly that way.

The steps are put on a car so that people can get on or off. When you stand on the steps you cause the Company some ANXIETY. But you cause the other passengers DISCOMFORT and DANGER. Suppose you are one of the other passengers? Then be cautious—wait till the way is clear, so that you can get off without a CONTORTION. Make it INCONVENIENT for the persons who insist upon riding on the steps.

t How Marshall Field Made Money. 'In the early '80s, when the First National bank of Walla Walla was not as big as it is now, I pretty nearly had niy breath taken away one day by a good looking stranger halflug from Chicago. He threw a letter of credit for $80,000 from a Chlcago bank on my desk, and quietly sald: 'Can you cash that?' I looked him over once or twice, made a quick putlinate of all the loose cash I thought I could scrape up, and said: 'Yes. How do you want it?' 'I think I'll take it in land.' In a month's time, as his authorized agent, I bought about 30,000 acres of cheap rallroad land for my Chlrago friend, taking the deeds in my name at his request, paying an average of $2.05 an acre. The combination 'of healthful vegetable ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed, makes it an especially desirable and effective remedy in the treatment of sores and ulcers of every kind. Since an impure condition of the blood is responsible for the trouble, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a successful cure; and it should be a medicine that not only cleanses the circulation, but one that at the same time restores the blood to its normal, rich, nutritive condition. S. S. S. is just such a remedy. It is made entirely of healing, cleansing vegetable properties, extracted from nature's roots, herbs and barks of the forest and fields. It has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the qualities necessary to remove every impurity in the blood. When S. S. S. has purified the circulation, and strengthened and enriched it, sores and ulcers heal readily and surely, because they are no longer fed and kept open by a continual from San Rafael, in an indirect way. discharge into them of irritating disease-laden matter from the blood. The lath completely hides from view the iron framework and is in turn covered by the plaster work. The Iron work is covered on the ontside hy the ashlers.

Through each of these buildings enormous currents of electricity are surging each day. There are any number of electric light wiree and telephone wires. It is an acknowledged fact that a great deal of electricity is dispatched in its transmission, perhaps as much as 80 or 90 per cent. This electricity, while dissipated from its original purpose, finds a lodging somewhere, and that somewhere, I helleve, is in the iron framework of the building. A short while ago it was demonstrated in the case of the city sewera and water mains what damage the volts of electricity, continually charging through the pipes, can do to the iron. linge holes were found to have been eaten into the metal, which was a subject of electrolysis. It is only reasonable to anppose that a similar effect will be produced upon the iron framework of the bnildings, charged, each day, with thousands upon thensands of volts of electri-

"Nor can this damage to the structure be readily ascertained. The wires connecting the metal lath and stone ashlers to the framework might be ready to disintegrate, and the framework Itself might he in a deplorable condition, and about to give way and cause the fall of the halldings, and yet, completely covered as they are, they may not be noticed in the least. I helieve that in fifty years' time the bnildings now up will have become so unsafe that public policy will demand that they be torn down, and that no other such human beehives be constructed.

"Other evils of the skyscraper will add to the agitation against them. The traffic congestion problem, the fact that they are detrimental to the public health, that they prevent the proper circulation of fresh air and sunshine, that they lead to a monopoly of all available mortgage money, will contribute to their dewnfall. But the thing which will prevent their apread is not primarily any of these considerations. Men are not often moved by questions of mere public health or comfort to change from a certain profitable course but it will be because of sheer necessity, because these buildings cannot longer stand. When their construction was begun it was recognized that the skyscrapers were nnsanitary. This consideration did not deter their building and will not deter it in the future. The question of their safety should be seriously considered, and I hope that it will receive the attention which it deserves."-Brooklyn Eagle.

MILLIONAIRES WHO HAVE PASSIONS IN COMMON WITH ALL

It is a peculiar fact, but trne, nevertheless, that when conversation furns upon the subject of millionaires there arises in the mind a brain plcture showing the ephemeral figure of a sordid man gleating and grasping at his golden heard; a man of miserly expression, whose heart is huried in his wealth, whose soul is stirred by the musical clink of his coln. He is looked upon as a stranger to the finer feeling and sentiment of the ordinary person

WILY SPERRY WAS WRONG.

Rear Admiral Sperry, whose unruffled dignity and legal trend of thought have given him the reputation of a just officer, far removed from wardroom jokes, was watching with interest a party of children who were being shown over the flagship Connecticut while the fleet was here, says the San Francisco Chronicle. To lientenant who stood hy his side he remarked on the intelligence the children evinced in the questions hey were asking. "Yes, sir," the lieutenant replied

"They will tell their fathers and nothers about this for months to come," the rear admiral went or unbending a little in his interest in the children. "No, air." replied the lientenant.

"I say they will tell their parents about this when they get home," repeated the admiral. "No, sir, they wont de that," re-
